About Me

I'm a self-taught web developer with a lifelong obsession with all things technology. From taking apart my first computer at age 12 to building dynamic websites today, I've always been driven by curiosity and coding. Over the past year, I've immersed myself in mastering HTML/CSS, JavaScript, while experimenting with full-fledged projects using Node.js

Education

Web Development Bootcamp:
Solicode School 2024–2025 in tanger:

Intensive training in modern web development, including:

- ✓ Front-end: HTML/CSS, JavaScript
- ✓ Back-end: Node.js, php
- ✓ Tools: Git, GitHub, VS Code, Figma

Experience

I have a lot of experiences, but the main experience is studying in Solicode. The rest of the experiences are small, such as programming many things like bots WhatsApp, and Telegram using Python.

Projects

Web Development Projects:

- ✓ Blog de restaurants Tanger
- ✓ WishReads
- ✓ Gestion de panier d'une commande
- ✓ Site Solicode
- ✓ Reproduire la maquette d'une page web
- ✓ Générateur-Portfolios
